

Agenda
Dartmouth/PO1 Research Group
Marine Biological Laboratory (MBL)
Woods Hole, MA
Wednesday, April 20 and Thursday, April 21, 2016

Wednesday, April 20

10:50am - 11:05am: Welcome & Introductions

11:05am - 12:30pm: Research I

- Kimon Bekelis – “Exnovation”
- Marietou Ouayogode – “Determinants of Success in Shared Savings Programs: An Analysis of ACO and Market Characteristics”
- John Hsu – “Changes in care delivery and spending within a large Pioneer ACO”

12:30pm – 1:30pm: Lunch Break

1:30pm – 3:00pm: Research II

- Scott Regenbogen -- “Association between hospital safety culture and episode spending after inpatient surgery”
- Edward Norton -- “Implicit value of life in Medicare’s Hospital Value-Based Purchasing Program”
- Donny Likosky–“HRR-level variation in Medicare expenditure growth, 1999-2013: The case of acute myocardial infarction”

3:00pm – 3:10pm: Short break

3:10pm – 4:00pm: Research III

- Zack Cooper – “Variation in the Under-65 Privately Insured Population / What Do Hospitals Do with An Extra $15 Million? Evidence from the Passage of Medicare Part D”

4:00pm-Adjourn, free time to walk/explore Woods Hole and the Rail Trail

6:00pm-7:00pm Cocktails

7:00pm-9:30pm Dinner

Thursday, April 21

7:30am-8:30am Breakfast

8:30am - 10:00am: Research IV

- Doug Staiger – “Predicting the impact of hospital closures on mortality”
- Hannah Wunsch – “Is end-of-life care for physicians different?”
- John Hsu – “Guidelines, benefit design, and cancer screening”

10:00am - 10:30am: Break

10:30am - 12:00pm: Research V

- Erika Moen – “An investigation of evidence-based implantable cardioverter defibrillator treatment in the U.S. from a social network perspective”
- Amy Finkelstein – “Sources of geographic variation in health care: Evidence from patient migration”
- Amy Finkelstein – “Public vs. Private Health Insurance: New Evidence from Medicare”

12:00pm - 1:00pm: Lunch Break

1:00pm - 3:00pm: Research VI

- Loren Baker – “Prices and spending in multispecialty groups”
- Jon Skinner – “Overconfidence and the diffusion of medical technology”
- Wrap-up

3:00PM Adjourn